Genealogy Talk at Meeting on August 15

"Finding a Variety of Pre and Post-Civil War Records on Your Virginia Ancestors, Including Plantation Records" by Char McCargo Bah

Genealogist Char McCargo Bah will be the featured speaker at the Mount Vernon Genealogical Society's monthly membership meeting scheduled for August 15. Ms. Bah will speak about less frequently used record groups to show the kinds of information that can be found about pre- and post-Civil War Virginians (including free and enslaved African Americans as well as European Americans) and their plantation.

The talk will take place from 1-3 p.m. on Tuesday, August 15 at the Hollin Hall Senior Center, 1500 Shenandoah Road in Alexandria, Virginia.

The talk is free and the public is invited to attend.
